

TONOPAH GIRL WINS HIGHWAY ESSAY CONTEST

Miss Lois Wann's Paper Is Attracting Attention in Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25.—Notable honors in the national highway essay contest, conducted last fall by the highway and highway transport education committee were won by Miss Lois Wann, a pupil in the Tonopah public schools, whose essay was chosen as the best from the state to represent Nevada before the national essay committee. It was announced here today, Miss Wann receives a gold medal and $15 as the state victor.

In the lesson contest among teachers, conducted simultaneously with the essay contest, honors went to a paper prepared by Miss Rose Mildred Jones, 211 North Nevada street, Carson City. Her lesson is now before the national committee for consideration in the award of three grand prizes.

Two other prizes were given pupils in addition to those won by Miss Wann. An essay by Jack Graham, a student in the Carson City public schools, was awarded second honors, which entitled him to receive a silver medal together with a check for $10.

A third prize, a bronze medal and $5, was given Edwin Semenza of the McKinley Park school of Reno.

These awards were made by a committee appointed by W. J. Huntz, state superintendent of schools, who recognized the merit of the contests and encouraged students and teachers to participate.

In announcing the result of the contest in Nevada, in which hundreds of pupils and teachers participated, the committee also made known the personnel of the two national committees to grade the best essay and the best lesson respectively from each state.

Members of the national lesson committee are: William Phelps Eno, Washington, D. C., president of the Foundation for Highway and Traffic Regulation; chairman, Dr. Thomas E. Finigan, Harrisburg, Penn., state superintendent of public instruction for Pennsylvania; and W. J. Funk, New York City, vice-president of Funk & Wagnall, publishers of the Literary Digest.

Members of the national essay committee are: Mrs. Warren G. Harding, honorary chairman, Senator Coleman, Del. Pent, Delaware, chairman; Mrs. John D. Sherman, Estes Park, Colo., chairman applied education committee; General Federation of Women's Clubs, and Dr. William T. Bowden, Washington, D. C., assistant to the commissioner of education.

The lesson committee will consider one lesson from each state and territory, and will award three grand national prizes, consisting of $500 and a trip to Washington, $300 and a trip to Washington, and the third a silver loving cup. All prizes offered in the contest are given by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

It is estimated by the committee that more than 400,000 students and approximately 20,000 teachers participated in the campaign. A similar campaign having for its aim the reduction in automobile accidents, will be undertaken next fall.

SOUTHWESTER BLEW AT RATE 55 MILES

The wind howled last night and continued today, with even greater fury. It was a southwester and whooped her up during the morning at 30 miles an hour, and at the rate of 55 miles an hour at 1:55 this afternoon. It was anything but pleasant out of doors, and some damage was reported to property, where roofs were loosened and in one or two instances almost completely demolished.

The Airdome lot, owned by the Knights of Pythias, furnished dirt galore for residents of that vicinity, and for people who happened to be in that vicinity, and the charred remains of the late fire were scattered in all directions. It was a shame and residents have a right to find fault in view of the fact that the lot could have been cleared of this rubbish and refuse at an expenditure of not to exceed $20.

Don't forget the Eagles dance Saturday night. Fine floor, excellent music and a good time.

AMUSEMENTS

"A MAN'S HOME," DOMESTIC DRAMA

What is heralded as one of the biggest photoplay attractions of the year, "A Man's Home," will be the special attraction at the Butler today.

The story of "A Man's Home," as written by Anna Stoebe Richardson and Edmund Broese, the first a prominent writer of magazine articles and lecturer before women's clubs, and the latter a well known actor of both the stage and screen. Ralph Ince directed the picture, and Harry Morey and Kathryn Williams play the leading roles. The story of "A Man's Home" is declared to be a reflection of home life in America. The axiom in English law that "a man's home is his castle and he has a right to defend it," while not the basis of the plot, has a bearing on the progress of the details. The appeal of this picture is to the American's love of home, and is conceded to be the greatest domestic drama ever screened. Do not miss it if you want to see a real picture.

Added to the program, the latest Pathe News

Tomorrow, there will be no pictures, as the theater will be used for the high school play.

Saturday, Conway Tearle, in "A Wide Open Town," and a Tonopah comedy, "The Skipper Strikes It Rich."

The Bonanza invites comparison.
